SUITS FOR FORECLOSURE

Wyllie Davis Appeals.
The Wilcox Sale.
Court Notes.

A petition for foreclosure of mortgage has been entered by the trustees of the estate of the late S. C. Allen against Akana. The property is a piece of land at Makakela, Honolulu, containing 4000 square feet, and the mortgage was given to secure the payment of a note for $1200 dated April 26, 1898, with interest of nine per cent per annum. O. Young was the maker of the note and on Oct. 16, 1900, he conveyed all his interest in the land to Akana.

The S. C. Allen estate trustees have brought a petition for foreclosure of mortgage against Ching Fat and Lum Tong San. The property is a leasehold adjoining Mrs. Lemon's premises at Waikiki, fronting seventy-five feet on the main road and having a depth of 125 feet. The lease has four years to run from Oct. 18 next at an annual rental of $300, and was mortgaged to secure the payment of a note for $800, with interest at twelve per cent. per annum, given by defendants to W. C. J. Ottman.

R. W. Davis has brought a writ of error to have the Supreme Court review a judgment in the Honolulu District Court, which was rendered against him and in favor of Mrs. J. A. King for $227.42. The suit was on a note for $160 given by Davis to Mrs. King on Nov. 8, 1898, payable at the rate of $10 monthly in advance until the whole was paid. According to the evidence nothing was ever paid on the note. An execution on judgment was returned unsatisfied.

William O. Smith, executor, has filed a return and account of sales of real estate, with a petition for confirmation, in the matter of the estate of W. Luther Wilcox, deceased. The total amount realized from the sales was $39,752, and the total of expenditures as certified by James F. Morgan, auctioneer, $530.20, making the net proceeds $39,221.80.

Frederick W. Maage has entered a supplemental petition in the divorce suit against Mary Maage, in which he accuses her of various acts of criminality between May 15 and June 15 of this year.

David Watson has been given ten days from yesterday to perfect his bill of exceptions from the decree of Judge Robinson disbaring him from the practice of law in the lower courts.

H. A. Heen by his attorney, C. F. Peterson, enters a general denial to the complaint in assumpsit of Bishop & Co.

GUARDSMEN TO STAGE WAR DRAMA

W. D. Adams has made arrangements with Col. Jones of the First Regiment, National Guard of Hawaii, to stage "The Spy," a war drama, for the benefit of the National Guard. The play will probably be presented in October. Col. Jones has had the matter under advisement for many months, and the matter will now be pushed through. The parts are nearly all male and will be taken principally by members of the National Guard.

HONOLULU'S NEWSBOYS.

Honolulu never had a newsboy until the spring of 1893 when a new daily paper, the Star, made its appearance. Everybody took the old papers and as few strangers came to town newsboys were not needed. As the Star had to push for business it induced two or three young lads to sell the paper on the streets. They were reluctant, but an offer of fifty cents apiece tempted them and they tried the job. At first they were objects of derision by their mates, but as the Star sold well and they coined money, half a dozen more youngsters came for copies. It was impossible, however, to get any of them to cry their wares. They stood in small groups on the corner near the publication office and held the papers rigidly in clenched hands until someone came along to buy. Most of the boys at the start were native Hawaiians who could not talk English very well; and not all of them knew the name of the journal they were selling.

As months went on the older papers hired newsboys and under the strain of competition the whole force began chasing people up. They would run to a man and offer a paper, giving its name, each in his own dialect, for by that time Chinese and Portuguese as well as Hawaiians were enlisted. It must have taken three years, however, to teach the lads the difference between editions and today not all of them will announce a second or third edition as the case may be.

At present there are three dailies selling on the streets and a widely circulated native weekly. The sales are, perhaps, from 2000 to 3000 per day, according to the news, the papers of largest subscription, of course, having the smallest number of street sales. Hawaiians and half-castes, Chinese, Portuguese and whites constitute the newsboy force and their earnings, though small, contribute, as a rule, to the support of families that have small means.

Though they have now had eleven years of training the Honolulu newsboys cannot be made to understand that a cry of sensational news would help sales. It was no use to try and teach them, one fateful day in 1902, to shout "McKinley shot!" "Walla malla Macinley?" a Chinese boy said; "me don't know him." "You tella me where Senhor Mackinlee live, I taka him de pape," was the reply of a Portuguese youngster. However, the big headlines answered the purpose and now, when type is large, the more enterprising ones show it to the passer by.

If a genuine New York newsboy should come to town and start out crying something like this: "Here's your Advertiser, second edition! Full account of the wreck on French Frigate Shoals!" he would reap a harvest of nickels. Probably, too, from his command of resonant English, he would get the best of others who might be led to imitate him.

There are about sixty newsboys in the city, the most energetic being Portuguese. Chinese come next and after them Hawaiians. The Japanese boys don't take to the business.
